Purpose of data processing and legal basis

For the web portal:

When you access our web portal, information of a general nature is automatically collected via your web browser and transmitted to our web server. This information (server log files) includes, for example, your IP address, date and time of access, the type of web browser, the operating system used, the domain name of your Internet service provider, the time of access, the time zone, the specific page or file accessed, the http status code and the amount of data transferred, as well as the website from which your request came.

This information is technically necessary in order to correctly deliver the website content requested by you and is mandatory for internet use. The information is processed for the following purposes:

- to ensure an unproblematic connection to the website,
- to ensure smooth use of our website,
- to evaluate system security and stability, as well as
- for other administrative purposes.

The processing of your personal data is based on our legitimate interest in enabling you to visit our website in the best possible way, General Data Protection Regulation (in the following GDPR (German abbreviation: DSGVO)/ Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. f. We do not use your data to draw conclusions about your person.

For use of the web portal:

In order to have a SARS-CoV-2 test, it is necessary to register on the web portal. The personal data required for registration (such as key personal data, contact data, travel data) are marked as mandatory fields. The processing of this data is necessary for the fulfillment of our contractual obligations within the scope of the SARS-CoV-2 test. Without this information, it is not possible to carry out the test. The legal basis is the contract concluded with you, GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. b), Art. 9 para. 2 lit. h), para. 3, Federal Data Protection (German abbreviation: BDSG) Act § 22 para. 1 no. 1 lit. b). You can provide additional personal data in the course of registration. The information not marked as mandatory is voluntary. In this respect, data processing is based on your consent in accordance with GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. a) and Art. 9 para. 2 lit. a).

To make an appointment:

To make an appointment for your SARS-CoV-2 test we use an online appointment service tool. In this context, it is necessary to provide your e-mail address, your flight status (crew, passenger) and your desired appointment. Here, the legal basis for the data processing is also the treatment contract concluded with you, GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. b), Art. 9 para. 2 lit. h), para. 3, Federal Data Protection Act § 22 para. 1 no. 1 lit. b). The online appointment service tool timerbee is operated by Imilia Interactive Mobile Applications GmbH, Wichmannstraße 7, D-10787 Berlin for order processing.

When contacting us:

On our website there is the possibility to contact us via our e-mail address. In doing so, we collect, store and process your e-mail address and other personal data that you provide us with in the context of your message. These data are collected and processed exclusively for correspondence with you and for processing your request. The legal basis is GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. f and Art. 9 para. 2 lit. a). If data processing is no longer necessary for this purpose, your personal data will be deleted, provided that this does not conflict with any legal storage obligation. This data will not be passed on to third parties without your express consent.

During the processing of specimens:

We process the following personal data from you as part of the collection and processing of samples to perform the SARS-CoV-2 test, the preparation and transmission of the results and the invoicing:

- key personal data (such as surname, first name, date of birth, gender),
- contact data (such as address, telephone number and/or e-mail address),
- health information relating to a SARS-CoV-2 infection.

This data is processed for the purpose of carrying out the treatment contract concluded with you for the performance of a SARS-CoV-2 test and for billing purposes on the basis of the GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. b) and Art. 9 para. 2 lit. h), para. 3, Federal Data Protection Act § 22 para. 1 no. 1 lit. b). It is necessary to provide your (health) data for the execution of the treatment contract/SARS-CoV-2 test. If the necessary information is not provided, the test cannot be performed. If you have provided us with further personal data during the course of registration, the processing is based on your consent, GDPR (to DSGVO/ BDSG) Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. a) and Art. 9 para. 2 lit. a).

Transmission of results via online findings app

You will be given a QR code at the time the sample is taken, sent also by e-mail, which matches the code on your sample. With this code you will be able to access your findings via the app "My COVID-19 Result" without having to mention your name. For this function, you must download and install the "My COVID-19 Result" app from the App Store or the Google Play Store. The bar code (your pseudonym) and the result data are processed for the purpose of transmitting and displaying your diagnostic results. By the additional entry of your personal data (name, surname, date of birth, ID number), you can download a personalized report from the app as a PDF file. Personal data is processed for the purpose of authentication and the transmission and display of your personalized results. The data processing required in this context is carried out to implement the contract concluded with you on the basis of the GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. b) and Art. 9 para. 2 lit. h), para. 3, Federal Data Protection Act § 22 para. 1 no. 1 lit. b).

The app requires access to the user's camera to read the bar code; here data is not stored.

In order to receive a push notifications about the availability of your test results, you must agree to receive push notifications via the app in your device settings. In this case, the allocation is via the QR code and a device-specific token is stored on the server, which allows push notifications to be sent. The processing of personal data in this context is based on your consent, GDPR Art. 6 para. s. 1 lit. a).

Data recipient

As part of the implementation and invoicing of the SARS-CoV-2 test:

The personal data collected at the collection center will be processed by us exclusively for the purpose of implementing and invoicing the contract concluded with you regarding your SARS-CoV-2 test. Your personal data will only be transferred to third parties if:

- you have given your express consent,
- the processing is necessary for the execution of the contract concluded with you,
- the processing is necessary for the fulfillment of a legal obligation,
- The processing is necessary to protect legitimate interests and there is no reason to assume that you have an overriding interest worthy of protection in not disclosing your data and you have not objected to the transfer.

Attention: We are legally obliged to comply with the reporting obligations of the German Protection against Infection Act (IfSG) and, in the event of a positive SARS-CoV-2 test, must forward your personal data to the responsible public health department (§ 9 IfSG).

To bill your SARS-CoV-2 test via your credit card, we use the payment service provider Stripe Payments Europe Ltd, 1 Grand Canal Street Lower, Grand Canal Dock, Dublin, Ireland. For payment processing, your personal transaction data (e-mail address, surname, first name, credit card number, invoice amount, credit card expiration date, CVC code and country) are passed on to the payment service provider. The processing and transfer of your data is carried out on the basis of the GDPR Art. 6 para. 1 s. 1 lit. b) exclusively for the purpose of executing the contract concluded with you, or more precisely for payment processing and only to the extent necessary for this purpose. You can find more information about Stripe's data protection under <https://stripe.com/de/privacy>.

Use of contract processors

In some cases, we use external service providers as contract processors to process your data. These have been carefully selected and commissioned by us, are bound by our instructions and are regularly checked. For example, IT service providers that work for us.

For planning and booking your SARS-CoV-2 test using the web portal, we use the online appointment tool timerbee from Imilia Interactive Mobile Applications GmbH, Wichmannstraße 7, D-10787 Berlin within the order processing.

Security through SSL encryption

The web portal uses SSL encryption for security reasons and to protect the transmission of confidential content. You can recognize an encrypted connection by the fact that the address line of the browser changes from "http://" to https:// and by the lock symbol in your browser line. If SSL encryption is activated, the data you transmit to us cannot be read by third parties.

Duration of storage

We will only save your personal data if necessary for completing and invoicing your SARS-CoV-2 test or if we are legally obliged to store it. Therefore, in accordance with the legal retention periods, we will store your personal treatment data for 10 years. Other data will also be stored for 10 years if they become relevant in the context of a legal dispute.

Your rights as the affected person

You have the right:

- in accordance with GDPR Art. 15 to request information concerning the processing of your personal data by us, such as purpose of processing, categories of personal data and recipient, storage period, rights of data subjects and the existence of an automated decision-making process;
- in accordance with GDPR Art. 16 to request the correction of incorrect data or the completion of incomplete data without delay;
- in accordance with GDPR Art. 17 to request the deletion of your personal data saved by us;
- in accordance with GDPR Art. 18 to request limitations to the processing of your personal data;

- in accordance with GDPR Art. 20 to request the personal data that you have provided us in a structured, common and machine readable format or request that it be sent to another responsible party;
- in accordance with GDPR Art. 7 para. 3 to withdraw your previously provided consent at anytime and with effect for the future. This had the consequence that we will not continue the data processing related to this consent in the future
- If your personal data is to be processed on the basis of legitimate interests in accordance with GDPR Art. 6 par. 1 s. 1 lit. f, you have the right to object to the processing of your personal data in accordance with GDPR Art. 21.

You may assert your rights at any time against the above-mentioned responsible body.

In addition, in accordance with the GDPR Art. 77, you may lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular at your place of residence, your place of work, our headquarters or the location the alleged violation occurred, if you believe that the processing of your personal data is in breach of data protection regulations. The data protection supervisory authority responsible for the area in which our registered office is situated is the:

Bavarian Data Protection Authority (BayLDA), Postfach 1349, 91504 Ansbach, poststelle@lda.bayern.de
